"Fit and Fun Tans was the official tanning company for the 2008 Fitness Atlantic. Tress is very knowledgeable about the tanning process for spray tanning for athletes entering bodybuilding, fitness, bikini, figure and fitness modeling events. The tanning process is the final contest preparation for entering a physique contest and it is something that can be very time consuming. If you have a chance to hire a professional tanning company to help you in this final stage do it as it will make your life easier as a fitness athlete." October 22, 2009

“Here are some of the great things about Tress: she will do a fantastic job tanning you, then she will be back stage to touch you up (you will NOT have to chase her down), she will not ...rob you blind and apply some crappy color. She's SUPER nice and understanding!!!! We spend months eating correctly and LOTS of money doing so, we spend weeks training hard to improve this or that, we spend tons of money in suits, trunks, costumes, clothes and make up.... At the day of the show, we save a WHIPPING few buck on tanning... one of the most important things to show all efforts of eating correctly, working and dedication at the gym and the killer outfits u got.... YEAH, that really makes a lot of sense.. Dont "SAVE" money and get all uneven, blotchy and crappy color tanning !! There are only 2 people I trust my tanning... Tress is one of them !!” November 11, 2009
